

Melanie G. Taylor

Extension Agent II,
4-H / Family & Consumer Sciences

850.639.3200 or 229.2909

metaylor@ufl.edu

200 North 2nd Street

Wewahitchka, FL 32465

2010 County Impacts and Outcomes

Educational Program Focus:

- 4-H Youth Development - Provide leadership and individual consultation to 4-H youth and adults. Plan, implement, and evaluate 4-H programs, (community clubs, school enrichment, camps, and other activities). Recruit, screen, train, and supervise adult and teen volunteers.
- Family & Consumer Sciences - Plan, implement, and evaluate 4-H EFNEP and FNP educational programs offered to limited-resource youth in the areas of nutrition, health, food safety, and economizing food dollars through meal planning and food resource management.

Work Experience

- | | | |
|----------------|----------------|--|
| • 1 year/10 mo | 2009 – Present | Gulf County, Extension Agent II, 4-H/FCS |
| • 5 years | 2003 – 2008 | Isle of Wight County, VA - Extension Agent, 4-H & Unit Coordinator |
| • 2.5 years | 2001-2003 | Southampton County, VA – Associate Extension Agent, 4-H |
| • 2.5 years | 1998-2001 | Teacher, Life Science/Physical Science, Smithfield Middle School |

Education

- | | | | |
|--------|----------------------|-----------|--------------------|
| • 2004 | Masters of Science | Education | Virginia Tech |
| • 1998 | Bachelors of Science | Education | Radford University |